

WEIGHING FROM LAND

Very little is known about this piece but it is thought to have been composed when an emigrant ship was leaving the Western Isles carrying settlers to America. There is no date for the tune. General Thomason's authorities for it are Angus MacKay's MS and Donald MacKay. It is also to be found in the Campbell Canntaireachd where it is labelled 'Called One of Dead's Lament'.